CORAM: R.S.MOHITE, J.
VACATION JUDGE
DATED: 19/5/2005.

PC:

1. Grievance made by the petitioner in these appeals from order that the application for regularisation is not made as the copy of the order is not available. As a matter of last indulgence Status quo extended for 4-days. It is made clear that application for regularisation be made without certified copy of the court's order since the order was passed after hearing both the sides. In view of these directions nothing more survives in the above appeals.

Accordingly all the civil applications and appeals from order are disposed of.
